

✦ Knightly News ✦

MARCH 2012

Hollis Brookline Middle School

From the Administration

March Madness is upon us! Certainly I am not referencing the collegiate basketball season, but rather the many activities scheduled for the month of March! Please take a moment to review the following dates and events. Some will directly affect you as a parent; others are for your information only.

I have scheduled two evenings for the mandatory parent/student Washington, DC meeting. Obviously you need only attend one of the evenings; Monday, March 12th, 6:30 pm or Wednesday, March 14th, same time. The meeting will be held in the HBMS gymnasium. Paperwork will be arranged alphabetically for you to gather as you enter.

March 13th is an early release day. Students will be dismissed at noon. There are no afternoon activities scheduled, including play practice.

Twenty one veterans are due on March 15th to meet with 8th grade students in small groups. The veterans will describe their involvement in serving our country; sharing stories and memorabilia. This meeting has become a tradition prior to our DC trip.

The HBMS Drama Department will proudly present Fiddler on the Roof Friday, March 16th and Saturday, March 17th at 7:00 pm in the middle school gymnasium. The students have been working tirelessly. Please plan to join us! The cost is $5 for children, $10 for adults and $25 for families. Doors will open at 6:30.

Team McAulliffe students will be on a field trip to the Higgins Armory on March 16th. Students are reminded to bring a bag lunch and digital cameras are acceptable.

Grade 8 students will leave for DC on Tuesday morning; March 20th. Students should plan to arrive at 5:40 am. Parents are asked to please be aware of parking. We have 5 coach busses arriving. Space is needed along the front side walk and at the north and south end parking lots. We expect to

Calendar Of Events

April 11—Early Release
April 23-27—Spring Vacation

return Friday evening by 8:00 pm. Again, the busses need space to enter the front driveway. Please be cautious of parking.

To restate, March is an extremely busy month! Hopefully this newsletter will serve to inform you and reinforce important dates. Please don't hesitate to call or email if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Patricia Lewis Goyette, Principal
Stephen Secor, Assistant Principal

Hollis Brookline High School Proudly Presents

“Legally Blonde the Musical”

Elle Woods, UCLA sorority president and a fashion design major with a 4.0 GPA becomes an Ivy League law school legend. When her boyfriend dumps her for someone "serious," Elle puts down the credit card, hits the books, and sets out to go where no Delta Nu has gone before: Harvard Law. Along the way, Elle proves that being true to yourself never goes out of style.

A very talented cast will bring life to this heartfelt and zany story through beautifully sung ballads, big dance numbers, sensational court scenes, sorority sister hallucinations, and a hilarious and eclectic group of characters from start to finish or rather, places to curtain. “Legally Blonde the Musical” is based on the movie “Legally Blonde” and features music and lyrics by Laurence O’Keefe and Nell Benjamin with book written by Heather Hach.

Performances are March 23rd at 7:30pm; March 24th at 2pm, March 30 at 7:30pm, March 31 at 7:30pm. For ticket information or questions please contact hbhstheatre@gmail.com or Joyce Woodrow at 465-3328. Also, tickets ($10 adults; $8 student/seniors) can be purchased online at <http://hbhstheatre.ticketleap.com/legally-blonde>.